THAW TREATED PRISONERS

New York, July 4.—Harry K. Thaw, under indictment for the murder of Architect Stanford White, gave his fellow male prisoners at the Tombs a pleasant surprise today by treating them all to cream and cake. Thaw was talking with Rev. John A. Wade, the Episcopal clergyman who attends to the spiritual needs of the Protestant prisoners. Thaw asked the minister if the Fourth of July was being observed in any special way in the prison.
"Well," answered the clergyman, "I've just finished a task that falls upon me every independent day—that of supplying the women and boys with ice cream and cake."
When the minister said that the men were uncared for in this respect, Thaw asked him to get enough to go around and send the bill to him. Mr. Wade did as requested, buying forty-six quarts of ice cream and thirty dozen cakes.
Thaw's wife was not permitted to visit him today, the only visitors being in effect the same as on Sunday.
